MINERS' SIDE OF IT

Mitchell Before the Anthracite Strike Commission.

LENGTHY STATEMENT MADE.

Pleads Earnestly For the Betterment of His Vast Army's Condition.

URGES RECOGNITION OF THE UNION.

Claims Such Procedure Would Be Beneficial to Both Parties-Goes On the Stand and Is Examined at Length - Features of the First Sitting.

Scranton, Pa., Nov. 14.—The commission appointed by President Roosevelt to arbitrate the difference existing between the anthracite mine workers and their employers began the hearing of the miners' side of the case. When the commission opened its session the only evidence before it was the preliminary statement of Mr. Mitcheli and the replies thereto of the operators. After the workmen have concluded their case the operators will make their defense. It is expeeted that more than two weeks wili be taken up in hearing both sides. Judge Gray presided. Mr. Mitchell and attorneys representing both parties to the controversy were present. When Mr. Darrow cailed for the regular procedure, Mr. Wolverton asked that the miners present their ease. The request was immediately carried out, and President Mitchell arose and addressed the commission. His statement contained 6,000 words.

Mr. Mitcheil prefaced his statement with the hope that the commission would "suceeed in establishing a relationship between the operators and the miners that will insure peace and stability in the industry for an indefinite period." After reciting the demands for increased pay for the miner, a 1...orter work day for the laborer, the welghing of the eoal and an industrial agreement, the refusal of all of which led to the strike. Mr. Mitchell spoke as follows on the question of wages:

"Of the 147,000 men and boys employed in and around the mines, strippings, washeries and breakers in the anthraeite eoal fields, 64,072, or 43 per cent, are employed on contract or plece work, the remaining 83,000, or 57 per cent are employed by the hour, day, week or more. Of the 64,072 contraet men, 37,804 are miners, and 26,-268 are mine laborers.

"The work of a miner and a miner's labor is extremely hazardous; in fact it is more dangerous than employment in any other important ludustry in the work. The number of persons killed and injured is greater than in any other industry. Reputable insurance eompanles will not issue policies to this class of workmen; the risks are so great that the premiums would be prohibitive to men whose earnings are so low. The entire 20 per cent which oecupied all positions in the bitumithey demand as an increase in their wages would not suffice to carry an insurance of $1,000. It seems but fair glon. Mr. Mitcheli sald that 51 per and just that wages paid these classes of workmen should be as high, if not higher, than wages paid to skilled artisans in other industries."

Reduction of Hours.

In supporting the demand for the reduction of the hours of the day laborers, Mr. Mitchell showed that it amounted practically to a demand for 20 per eent increase of compensation for 83,000 men, or 57 per cent of all mine employes. Continuing he said: "The eight hour day is the standard working day in the mining industry. Bight hours constitute a day's work in the coal mines of Great Britain, in all the silver, gold and eopper mines and in all the bituminous coal mines. The reports of the United States geological survey demonstrate that more coal has been produced annually since the inauguration of the 8-hour work day than in any preceding year. Each miner promeed more coal per working day in eigh hours than he formerly produced in 10 hours, and there is no reason why the same results would not be obtained in the anthracite field. The bituminous workers in many instances get from 20 to 40 per cent higher wages for eight hours work than are paid in the anthraeite mines for 10 hours work."

Defending the third demand that coal shall be weighed and paid for by weight and that 2,240 pounds shall constitute a ton, Mr. Mitchell declared the eoal produced by the miners in the Lackawanna, Wyoming and Lehigh regions has been the source of more discontent than any other of the many injustices imposed upon miners and there can be no contentment among these workers until an honest system has been adopted. Paying for coal by the car or by a ton weighing from 2.740 to 3.190 pounds is a flafrom 2.740 to 3,190 pounds is a flagrant injustlee. Mr. Mitcheil said the miner should be paid for every pound of coal he mines that is sold by the Time, Tact and Patience Will Be Reoperator.

Mr. Mitcheli outlined the history and policy of the United Mine Workits constitution, the anthracite and bituminous mine workers had home rule for the local government of local iffairs. "The only manner," ..e sald, 'in which the national organization is permitted to interfere is that, before a strike is inaugurated by the distriet organization, the approval of the president of the national union must be obtained, but the president of the national organization has no authority to inaugurate a strike. Thus the coal mine operators are afforded a separate and independent organiza-

Urges Recognition.

Mr. Mlteheii continued: "We demand recognition because we know that permanent peace and friendly relations can be best maintained mines are members of it from choice, they desire to retain their membership in it. It was the United Mine Workers of America that conferred with the president of the United States, in relation to the submission of the issues involved in the eoal strike; that declared the strike at an end; that sent the men back to work; that pledged to accept the award of this commission. Failure to reeognlze the organization was the cause of the many local strikes against which operators and mine workers the union does not mean dictation, nor masses of the population." interference by men, not employed by shall exercise supervision over the organization, or shall counsel with the affairs shall be conducted."

Mr. Mitchell concluded with a plea for the chlidren. He said: "Our little boys should not be forced into the time, tact and patience to establish Royal Blue Flyer Wreeked Near mines and breakers so early in life; our little girls should not be compelled to work in the mliis and factories at an age when they should be in school. These children are the future citizens of our nation; their parents should be enabled to earn wages sufficiently high to give them at least a common school education."

Mitcheli on the Stand.

Responding to a question by Judge Gray, Mr. Darrow, attorney for the miners, said he would at outset put on some witnesses and that he would cail Mr. Mitchell first. Mr. Mitchell then took the stand. In response to questlons by Mr. Darrow, he said that he began doing mining work as a door boy when he was 12 years old and had nous fields except that of foreman. He had not worked in the anthracite recent of all eoal mined in the United States, was mined in Pennsylvania, and that 90 per cent of the anthracite mine workers are members of the unlon.

"Has the president or executive board ever ordered a strike since they have been at the head of this organization, or since it has been in existence?" asked Mr. Darrow,

"No," was the reply, "except upon affirmative vote of the miners themselves. The officers carry out the instructions of the miners."

Mr. Mitchell, comparing the rates of wages paid in the bituminous fields with those pald in the anthraeite region, said they were from 40 to 50 per cent higher in the bituminous eountry in some classes of work and from 20 to 30 per cent in others.

Mr. Darrow's next question brought out the first public statement made since the late strike was inaugurated, regarding the amount of aid given the strikers. Mr. Mitchell said that $1,-500,000 had been distributed among ident's hunt for bear. "Bill" Ennolds the workers and that non-union men reached here from the swamp country on strike had shared equally with the along the Mississippi river with six unionists, although they had paid no bear dogs, and Mr. Mangum, despite dues. Mr. Mitcheil, in reply to a ques- his illness, started with them for tion, said that his organization is capable of maintaining discipline.

T. H. Hickman, foreman of the jury, says the verdict was reached on the first bailot. Juror W. H. Coehran said the "jury was unanlmous on guilt from the first. The testimony of Dr. Chapman followed by Dr. Merrlli, was convincing. Some of the jury wanted to give Butler the limit. One man wanted to give him only a fine and jail sentence. The sentence was the hardest to deeide."

When the verdict was announced all eyes were turned toward Butler. A defiant glanee came to his face, then his features subsided into the expression of half disgust which he wore while listening to the testimony and arguments. Butler was asked his opinion of the verdict. He made no reply. A motion for a new trial was of this he jumped from bed and grap-

RUNNING FIGHT IN THE STREETS.

Marshal of the Place Fatally Wounded and a Robber's Head Blown Off - Houses Entered and Other Depredations Done.

Elyria, O., Nov. 14.-Marshal Henry Krohn was seriously shot and an unknown burglar had his head blown off in a bloody battle here early in the morning. The shooting occurred during a fight with four robbers, who eompietely terrorized the town. The gang stole horses and rigs, entered several houses and shot recklessly in a wild charge down the main street of the town.

J. E. Baird was awakened by burglars in his house. He got up and saw two masked men standing on either side of his bed. Drawn revolvers were pointed at his head, but ln splte pled with the intruders. In the dark-The filing of an appeal bond to the ness they broke away and fled from

The burglars then entered the home of Town Marshal Krohn, who opened fire on them. When he had shot three times, one of the robbers, who had jumped into a buggy, got out and began blazing away at the marshal. At the third shot, the latter feil with a buliet through his hips. Baird, who had meantime arrived at the scene, picked up the officer's gun and continued the firing. The robbers, however, drove rapidly away.

Mr Baird followed them to the home of Superintendent W. J. Hillier of the Cleveland, Elyria and Western railway. Even when Baird again opened fire on the robbers, they walked into the Hillier home, after smashing in the door. The noise on the street aroused Hillier and he reached for his gun, loaded with quali shot. A burglar cautiously opened the door and Hilliler blew his head off with the first discharge. The other robber turned and ran, but Hiller discharged the second barrei. The robber yeiled and tottered, but did not fall. lie ran into the street and disappeared. A posse was at once formed and is pursuing the robbers. Marshai Krohn is serlously and perhaps fatally wounded. It is not known how badly the other robbers are hurt. By the Comptroller of Currency. Statements Made.

Boston, Nov. 14.-The Central Natlonal bank of this elty did not open for business Friday, the comptroller of the currency having ordered the bank examiner to close its doors and take charge of its business.

The ciosing of the bank is said to be due to excess loans and a lack of quick assets. An appeal for aid was made to the Boston clearing house association, but the commission did not deem it advisable to assist the bank. The bank is among the smaller institutions of the city. It was organized in 1873 with a capital of $500,000. Its deposits aggregate $3,500,000 and it is believed this amount can be paid in full without an assessment on the stockholders. Otis H. Duke is president and J. Adams Brown cashier.

The fallure of negotiations for the Ellot National bank, to ilquidate the Central National, is understood to have contributed to the fallure, as well as the fact that the bank never fully recovered from a blow it received 20 years ago, when with the Pacific bank, which falled at that time, it was involved in the collapse of the British steamer Eilngamlte, which Lebanon Springs rallroad in Vermont. was wreeked on one of the Three The Central bank then lost $350,000, and an assessment of about 100 per eent was made upon the stockholders and no dividends were paid for 13 years.

THE Pennsylvania, one of the big railroad systems of the country, has advanced the wages of its 100,000 employes 10 per cent. In a statement to the public, the President of the road says:

"The country is passing through an unexampled period of prosperity, and, as far as the Pennsylvania is concerned, this prosperity is hound to contlaue for at least two years, if contracts are kept. It is time that our employee be given a share in this prosperity. All the railroads in the United States and all employers of labor are contemplating an advance in wages. The cost of living has increased 20 to 25 per cent., but wages have not increased accordingly. This movement is bound to come and the Pennsylvania may as well lead as follow. We have more business offered than we can handle, and cannot see a way out of the trouble unless we keep our men loyal to the company and help them while they belp us.

A small increase is of course better than none at all, but according to this statement the employes are still 10 to 15 per cent. worse off now than before the advance in cost of living. The corporations seem to be getting more than their share of the prosperity.

"DESPOTISM."

One of the trusts which both Gov. Cummins, of Iowa, and the Chicago Tribune admits is had, is the barhed wire trust.

Not only is it charged with being an absolute monopoly, of selling to foreigners at prices far below those charged Americans, and of getting unlawful and specially low freight rates over the railroads, but, as Gov. Cummins said in the this assassination, the more brutal, cold-Chicago Trihune of October 19, "it fixes not only the price the dealer must pay, but the retall price he sells it for, as well. Firms have been refused barbed dealt in other articles bought from inwire hy the trust merely because they dependent steel companies, and they were forced to surrender."

The Chicago Tribune of October 21 quotes Gov. Cummins' statement, and adds that "This is a despotism that American citizens have submitted to with unexampled patience for an astounding length of time."

THE POLITICAL DRIFT.

Chairman Babcock, of the Republican National Committee, has "flopped" again, since the election, and is now urging a revision of the tariff. He warns Republicans that the election returns show a strong drift of the city voters to Democracy, and he attributes this to the outrageous increase by the trusts in the cost of living. "Mr. Bahoock predicts," says the Lexington Herald, "that unless shake the Commonwealth from one end Congress takes some action by which the cost of living can be reduced, or that in the courts some action can be insti- told. tuted by which overcapitalization is prevented, and wages increased, the Repub. I can party in 1904 will lose the city vote. He points out that the vast majority of the voters of America who do not own their own farms depend upon fixed wages and fixed salaries, which do not change as the cost of living goes up or down. When living is cheap, these persons get the benefit of this cheapness. When the cost of living goes up they are injured by the rise. ### BRITTINGHAM STILL ALIVE.

Particulars of Deplorable Tragedy Enacted at Manchester Friday Morning.

Brief mention was made in Friday's issue of Bulletin of the shooting of Moses Brittlingham, of Manchester, by James Mastin, followed by the latter's Buicide.

The trouble originated over Brittingham's attempt to collect a board bill from Mastin. The latter left Brittlngham's hotel the evening before, it is learned. and returned Friday morning for his clothes. Brittingbam refused to give them up until the bill was paid, and ln the quarrel that ensued, Mastin shot him three times in the back.

The Bulletin's information yesterday was that Mastin at once shot and killed himself, but later information is that he shot himself after he had been placed in jail. He died about 4 o'clock Friday aft- for the Ragland oil fields.

Brittingham was reported resting well this morning. He and Mastin are both well known in Maysville.

William Jackson, aged seventeen, was public invited to all services. arrested at Germantown the first of the week charged with stealing $200 from an old man named Samuel Hamilton near Brooksville. All the money except $3 was recovered. Jackson is an orphan and stole the money while spending the night at Hamilton's home.
